- All Oxford Downs House Rules will apply, except where specifically noted. Tournaments and satellite seats will be randomly assigned.
- Players going from a broken table to fill in seats assume the rights and responsibilities of the position. They can get the big blind, the small blind, or the button. The only place they cannot get a hand is between the small blind and the button.
- In flop and mixed games when balancing tables, players will be moved from the big blind to the worst position, including taking a single big blind twice. Worst position is never the small blind.
- All cards will be turned face up once a player is all-in and all betting action is complete.
- Player are entitled to a reasonable estimation of an opponent's chip count: thus chips should be kept in countable stacks. Players must keep higher denomination chips visible and identifiable at all times.
- Players may not hold or transport tournament chips in any manner that takes them out of view. A player who does so will forfeit the chips and may face disqualification. The forfeited chips will be taken out of play.
- Players are obligated to protect the other players in the tournament at all times. Therefore, players, whether in the hand or not, may not: Disclose contents of live or folded hands, advise or criticize play at any time, read a hand that hasn't been tabled.
- When the need for a small denomination chip is eliminated, all chips of the denomination will be colored-up to the higher denomination chip in play.
- A player must be at his or her seat by the time all players have been dealt complete. Initial hand in order to have a live hand. A player must be at his/her seat to call time.
- Players must protect their own hands at all times. If a hand is fouled or a dealer kills a hand by mistake, the player has no redress and is not entitled to a refund of called bet or raise will be returned to him.
- In heads-up play, the small blind is on the button and acts first. When beginning heads-up play, the button may need to be adjusted to ensure no player takes the big blind twice in a row
- A penalty may be invoked if a player exposes any card with action pending, throws a card off the table, violates the one-player-to-a-hand rule, or similar incidents occur. Penalties will be invoked for soft play, abuse, disruptive behavior, or cheating. Penalty options include verbal warnings, "missed hands", "missed rounds," and disqualification. During a penalty, the offender must remain away from the table. Cards are dealt to his seat, the blinds and antes are posted, and the hand is killed after each initial deal. In stud-type games if he is dealt the bring-in card he must post the bring-in.
- Chips of a disqualified player shall be removed from play.
