OXFORD HOUSE RULES

1. All Oxford Downs house rules will apply, except where specifically noted. Tournaments and satellite seats will be randomly assigned.
2. When players are moved from a broken table to fill in empty seats, they assume the rights and responsibilities of the position they are moved to. This may be the big blind, the small blind, or the button. The only position they cannot assume is between the small blind and the button.
3. When balancing tables in mixed games or flop, players will be moved from the big blind to the worst position, including taking a single big blind twice. Worst position will never be the small blind.
4. All cards will be tabled (face-up) once a player is all-in and betting action is complete.
5. Players are entitled to a reasonable estimation of an opponent's chip count - thus chips should be kept in countable stacks. Players must keep higher denomination chips visible and identifiable at all times.
6. Players may not hold or transport tournament chips in any manner that takes them out of view. A player who does so will forfeit the chips and may face disqualification. The forfeited chips will be taken out of play.
7. Players are obligated to protect the other players in the tournament at all times. Therefore, players, whether in the hand or not, may not: disclose contents of live or folded hands, advise or criticize play at any time, or read a hand that has not been tabled.
8. When the need for a small denomination chip is eliminated, all chips of the denomination will be colored-up to the higher denomination chip in play.
9. Players must be at their seat for the initial deal in order to have a live hand. Players must also be at their seat to call time.
10. Players must protect their own hands at all times. If a hand is fouled or mistakenly killed by a dealer, the player has no redress and is not entitled to a refund of the called bet or raise.
11. In heads-up play, the small blind is on the button and acts first pre-flop. When beginning heads-up play, the button may need to be adjusted to ensure no player takes the big blind twice in a row.
12. A penalty may be invoked if a player exposes any card with action pending, throws a card off the table, violates disruptive behavior, or cheats. Penalty options include verbal warnings, missed hands, missed rounds, and disqualification. During a penalty, the offender must remain away from the table. Cards will be dealt to their seat, blinds and antes will be posted, and the hand is killed after each initial deal. In stud-type games, if they are dealt the bring-in card, they must post the bring-in.
13. Chips of a disqualified player shall be removed from play.
